Summer Solstice, the longest day of the year, is the time for nurturing the seeds we planted in the spring, the time for weeding and pruning that which would limit our harvests. The sun is hot in the bright, azure sky, ready to pour its energy into our projects, but we must have open arms and an open heart, ready to accept its abundance. Come join us as we invoke growth for the Earth, ourselves, each other, and community, through storytelling, dance, song, and sacred enactment.

Bring musical instruments to be joyfully played during the ritual enactment. Family ritual, men and children welcome.
